Re: United States v. John Ebeling, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 10-696 (S-2)(JS)

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed is an index for the recordings in the above-referenced case. The index is organized by count and includes the defendant(s) who were present for the recorded conversation in addition to the pinpoint location (i.e., the exact hour and minute) containing the incriminatory statements. This index does not preclude the government from playing other recordings at trial. Nor is it a representation that the government will play each of these recordings at trial. The government's review of the recordings is an ongoing process that will continue until trial. Accordingly, the government reserves the right to add to, subtract from or otherwise modify the enclosed index.

If you have any questions, feel free to call me.

Very truly yours,

LORETTA E. LYNCH
